December, 2013

The Las Vegas Chapter of the Brandeis University National Committee is holding its annual fund-raiser, the seventeenth Book & Author luncheon, on Sunday, March 9, 2014. Our chapter membership is comprised of 350 men and women. The proceeds will support our “Sustaining the Mind” fund to provide research in neurodegenerative diseases such as Alzheimer’s and Parkinson’s diseases. Our chapter participates throughout the Las Vegas community, volunteering at libraries, hospitals, schools and food pantries. We also offer multiple learning opportunities for our members in the form of study groups and seminars.

We are seeking a donation of gift certificates and/or products or services which we can include in our fundraising opportunities. All donors will be listed and given recognition in the event program. Your contribution is a tax-deductible gift to the university and our entire membership will be made aware of your generosity. There will be a donor list given to each attendee, and your company will be prominently displayed in our program.

Your donation is tax deductible to the extent allowed by law. For your records, the Brandeis University Federal Identification Number is 04-2103552. We hope you will give this opportunity your consideration and respond at your earliest convenience.

Thanking you in advance for your consideration.

The Las Vegas Chapter of Brandeis University is holding its annual major fundraiser, the seventeenth Book & Author luncheon, on Sunday, March 9, 2014 at Tournament Players Club. The proceeds will support our “Sustaining the Mind” fund to provide research in neurodegenerative diseases such as Alzheimer’s and Parkinson’s disease. Our chapter of over 350 men and women will dedicate all of our event’s profit to help conquer these diseases. Our chapter participates throughout the Las Vegas Community volunteering at libraries, hospitals, schools and food pantries. We also offer multiple learning opportunities for our members in the form of over thirty study groups and seminars.

We are seeking a donation of gift certificates and/or products or services which we can include in our fundraising opportunities. All donors will be listed and given recognition in the event program. There will be a donor list provided to each attendee, and your company will be prominently displayed in our program.

We want, especially, to thank you for donating items for our “silent auction” last year. Your contribution helped make the event a great success. We hope that you will be willing to follow through and once again make a similar donation.

Your donation is tax deductible to the extent allowed by law. For your records, the Brandeis University Federal Identification Number is 04-2103552. With your continuing contribution in mind, we are enclosing a stamped addressed envelope. We hope you will give this opportunity your consideration and respond at your earliest convenience.

Thanking you in advance for your consideration,

To Whom It May Concern:

Brandeis University, an educational organization within the meaning of Section 170 (b)(l)(AXii) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, has been held, by the Director of the Tax Rulings Division of the Office of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, under date of March 30, 1955, to be exempt from Federal income taxation, under the provision of Section 101(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939. The ruling also held that contributions made to the University are deductible by donors in computing their taxable net income in the manner and to the extent provided by Section 23 (o) and (q) of the Code of 1939. Section 101(6) and Section 23 (o) and (q) of the Code of 1939 correspond to Section 170 of Title 26 of the United States Code.

The Brandeis National Committee, formerly known as Brandeis University National Women's Committee, and its constituent chapters form an integral part of the University, and their sole purpose is to further the growth and development of the University. The 55 chapters of the Brandeis National Committee are all chartered and governed by the National Center of the Brandeis National Committee. The Board of Trustees, under a charter issued under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in 1937, is empowered "to make and ordain, as occasion may arise, reasonable rules, orders and by-laws" for the organization and operation of the University.

The Brandeis National Committee and its constituent chapters are a part of Brandeis University and are entitled to all of the privileges the University enjoys.

Sincerely,

Christopher I. O'Brien
Vice President for Financial Affairs and University Treasurer
Dear Taxpayer:

This is in response to your Aug. 09, 2010, request for information regarding your tax-exempt status.

Our records indicate that you were recognized as exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code in a determination letter issued in SEPTEMBER 1941.

Our records also indicate that you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code because you are described in section(s) 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(ii).

Our records indicate that you are an exempt operating foundation described under Section 4940(d) of the Code.

Please refer to our website www.irs.gov/eo for information regarding filing requirements. Specifically, section 6033(j) of the Code provides that failure to file an annual information return for three consecutive years results in revocation of tax-exempt status as of the filing due date of the third return for organizations required to file.

If you have any questions, please call us at the telephone number shown in the heading of this letter.

Sincerely yours,

Rita A. Leete
